

WYGGESTON AND QUEEN ELIZABETH I COLLEGE, LEICESTER

PUBLICATION SCHEME

INTRODUCTION

1. Legal requirement

- 1.1 Adopting a publication scheme is a requirement of the Freedom of Information Act 2000. This Act promotes greater openness and accountability across the public sector by requiring all 'public authorities' to make information available proactively, through a publication scheme.
- 1.2 'Public authorities' are defined in the Act and include universities, further education colleges and sixth form colleges.

2. What is a publication scheme?

- 2.1 A publication scheme is a document which describes the information a public authority publishes, or intends to publish. In this context, 'publish' means to make information available, routinely. These descriptions are called 'classes of information'. The scheme is not a list of the actual publications, because this will change as new material is published or existing material revised. It is, however, the public authority's commitment to make available the information described.
- 2.2 A publication scheme must set out the classes, or categories, of information published. It must also make clear how the information described can be accessed and whether or not charges will be made.

3. The 'model' publication scheme for further education

- 3.1 Wyggeston & Queen Elizabeth I College has developed the model publication scheme prepared for the Further Education sector and is committed to publishing the information it describes.
- 3.2 This model is designed for further education colleges and sixth form colleges across England, Wales and Northern Ireland. The purpose of the model is to save institutions duplicating effort in producing individual schemes and to assist the public in accessing information from across the sector. However, to reflect the diversity in size and function of institution, a number of optional classes of information are included. As a result, models within the sector will vary slightly. Any optional classes relevant to us have been included in our scheme.
- 3.3 To assist with the development of the model, a number of institutions across the sector volunteered as pilots. Information about the pilot exercise is available from the JISC (Joint Information Systems Committee website at: www.jisc.ac.uk/index.cfm?name=mps_overview)

4. Who we are

Wyggeston & Queen Elizabeth I College is a sixth form college whose chief function is the provision of level 2 and 3 courses for students between the ages of 16 and 19.

5. Accessing information covered by the publication scheme

5.1 The classes of information we publish are described in the second part of the scheme.

5.2 Next to each class we have indicated the manner in which the information described will be available. We have also indicated whether charges apply to material in each class. You will be told what charge applies upon receipt of your request. Please send a Postal Order for the due amount, upon receipt of which your request will be processed.

5.3 To request information through our publication scheme, please contact the Clerk to the Corporation at the College (see note 7.1 below).

5.4 Please note that a publication scheme relates to 'published' information. Therefore, material covered has already been prepared in a format ready for distribution.

6. What about information not covered by the publication scheme?

6.1 From 1 January 2005 you will have the right, under the Freedom of Information Act 2000, to request any information held by a public authority which it has not already made available through its publication scheme.

6.2 Requests will have to be made in writing and, in general, public authorities will have 20 working days to respond. They may charge a fee, which will have to be calculated according to Fees Regulations. They will not be required to release information to which an exemption in the Act legitimately applies. However, public authorities may be required to explain to the applicant why they are not releasing information and they may also have to justify this to the Information Commissioner.

7. Feedback

7.1 It is important that this publication scheme meets your needs. If you find the scheme difficult to understand, please let us know. We also welcome suggestions as to how our scheme might be improved. Any questions, comments or complaints about this scheme should be sent in writing to the Publication Scheme Co-ordinator below:

Clerk to the Corporation

6. Information Services

Introduction

This section covers those functions within the institution that provide access to information to the student body and both academic and administrative staff. These include libraries, computing services and information support services. Such functions may be managed separately from each other, or in various combinations. These services routinely explain their facilities (and the conditions of their use) to students, staff and the general public, and it is information of this nature that is included within this section.

Information services inevitably hold large quantities of personal data that are exempt from general disclosure.

	Class	Description	MANNER	Fee
6.1	Availability and conditions of use of facilities	Information in these classes provides details about who can access systems and services and the facilities that they can access. They also provide assurance for external bodies/individuals that rules exist to ensure that breaches of conditions of use (eg breach of copyright, email spamming of an external site) are appropriately dealt with. Examples of the type of information in this class include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Opening hours of libraries, helpdesks, etc, scheduled maintenance times of systems • Who is allowed to use the facilities (for example, categories of persons and their associated rights/levels of access) • The general rules and conditions of use (eg no smoking/drinking/ eating, the existence of policies with regard to law such as copyright, computing code of practice, data protection). For other student policies, see reference to other relevant student policies in PS • Some of the information may be covered in the student registration details or staff conditions of employment • There should be a pointer to other codes of conduct or rules external to the institution which may apply to the user (eg JANET acceptable use rules, Athens registration rules) • Access to/use of Archives, including how far back in time information exists and if so to what extent it is available • Details of logging, monitoring and procedures followed in case of breach of conditions of use should also be included here 	Paper Electronic (when available)	£15 £10
6.2	Mission statements and related documents	This class should include information regarding the aims of the department in context of its place in the organisation, a definition of the service provided and, where appropriate, service level agreements.	Paper Electronic (when available)	£15 £10
6.3	Policies with regard to data and information	Information in this class offers assurances to data subjects, whether they are individuals or companies that deal with the institution, that data relating to them is being handled well, minimising the risk of unauthorised access or disclosure. Examples of the type of information in this class include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Security policies (ie how the data is protected). It could be argued that provision of information on this could risk a crime being committed, so it might be exempt or certain parts would not be published. (This is only really an issue where the security policy is explicit enough to include detail-ed description of implementation. Clearly disclosure of this sort of inform-ation could potentially lead to a crime under the Computer Misuse Act) • Data retention and archive policies (how long it is kept for, what happens to it after the need for it has passed, anonymising data to keep for statistics) • Data protection statements/policies • Policies on CCTV monitoring, RIPA etc 	Paper Electronic (when available)	£15 £10
6.4	Procurement and disposal policies	Information in this class offers assurances that monies are being appropriately spent and assurances that procurement is fair and	Paper Electronic	£15

		open. The disposal policies also assure that the institution is making correct and appropriate use of funds. Examples of the type of information in this class include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Policies relating to the procurement and disposal of equipment • Collection management/preservation strategy (including policy on disposal of stock) 	(when available)	£10
6.5	Scope of collections held	Examples of the type of information in this class include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Guides to collections • Scope and availability of catalogues 	Paper Electronic (when available)	£15 £10

8. External Relations

Introduction

This section covers information relating to the institution's relationship with its external environment. These include the formal reports the institution is required to provide to its funding bodies, arrangements with other institutions, how it manages its relationship with the local community and how it retains contact with its former staff and students.

By virtue of its nature most institutions will probably find that the majority of these classes are already made available to the public in some means. Members of the public are also likely to find the same or related information is available from the external partners with which the institution has links.

	Class	Description	MANNER	Fee
8.1	Community liaison	This class should contain information about the institution's relationship with their local community. The information included within this class represents the institution's approach to maintaining and fostering that relationship. An example of the type of information in this class is: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Policies relating to the institution's community relations 	Paper Electronic (when available)	£15 £10
